Greatness of This Temple

This ancient temple is one of the 108 Shiva temples (Shivalayas) in Kerala, traditionally established by Sage Parashurama.

It is one of five prominent Shiva temples around Guruvayur, known for its spiritual potency, serene atmosphere, self-manifested (swayambhu) idols, and blessings for marital harmony (e.g., Dampathi Pooja).

It offers peace and excellent darshan without crowds, and is considered over 1000 years old with historical significance.

Legends and History

Legend: Sage Parashurama installed the Shiva Lingam here as part of the 108 Shiva temples he consecrated in Kerala.

Another folklore links it to the deity of Thrissur's Vadakkunnathan Temple manifesting for a devotee from the area.

History: Centuries-old (claimed 1000+ years), renovated in 2001 (adding Subrahmanya shrine). It features unique elements like swayambhu idols and is a protected monument.

Architecture of Temple, Deities

Traditional Kerala style: Circular, two-storeyed sanctum sanctorum (sreekovil) with a conical copper-roofed top (golden dam). Spans ~4 acres, with vibrant mural paintings on outer walls depicting Mahabharata scenes.

No flag mast (dwajasthambam) or side towers; a large 10-ft balikkallu (sacrificial stone) in front obscures the lingam view from outside.

Main Deities: Lord Shiva (as Uma Maheswaran/Sri Mahadevan, self-manifested Shivalinga, facing west) and Goddess Parvati (facing east, rear shrine, showering blessings in all directions).

Sub-Deities

- Subrahmanya Swamy (Kartikeya/Murugan, east-facing, north-west side).
- Ganesha, Ayyappan, Hanuman (Anjaneya).
- Saptha Matrikas (seven mother goddesses in black stone idols).
- Navagrahas.

Others: Thiruvambadi Krishna (entrance), Dhakshinamoorthy (north-facing).

* By Rail: Guruvayur Railway Station (4 km) or Thrissur Railway Station (approx. 24 km)

* By Air: Cochin International Airport (Nedumbassery) is about 80 km away.

Greatness and Significance

The temple is unique because it represents the unity of Shiva and Parvathi. Devotees believe that a visit here completes the pilgrimage to Guruvayur. It is specifically sought after by those seeking mental peace and protection from "snake poison" (symbolic of negative energies), as Shiva is worshipped here as Pannagabhushana.

Legends and History

- * Sage Parasurama: Legend credits the installation of the Shivalinga to Sage Parasurama.

- * The Devotee's Umbrella: A popular folklore tells of a pious devotee of the Vadakkunnathan Temple in Thrissur who, in his old age, could no longer travel to see Lord Shiva.

The Lord, pleased with his devotion, is said to have manifested on the devotee's palm-leaf umbrella and accompanied him home to Chowallur, where the temple was eventually built.

Architecture and Deities

- * Main Deity: Lord Shiva, in the form of a Shivalinga, facing West.

Uniquely, Goddess Parvathi is installed at the rear of the same sanctum, facing East, symbolizing blessings in all directions.

- * Structure: The temple covers 4 acres and features a circular (Vatta) Sreekovil with two tiers and a copper-plated roof.

A notable 10-foot tall Balikalpura (altar) stands at the entrance, intentionally positioned so the deity cannot be seen from outside the gates.

- * Sub-Deities:

- * Sree Ganapathy and Lord Ayyappa (facing East).

- * Dakshinamurthy (Guru Bhagwan).

- * Subrahmanya Swamy (North-West side).

- * The Sapthamathrukkal (Seven Divine Mothers) carved in rare Krishnasila stone.

- * Hanuman, Navagrahas, and Simhodaran.

Rituals and Poojas

The temple typically conducts three daily poojas following traditional Kerala tantric rites.

- * Morning: 4:30 AM to 11:30 AM.

- * Evening: 5:00 PM to 8:00 PM.

- * Charges: General offerings like Pushpanjali or Neyyappam range from ₹20 to ₹500. Specialized rituals or Vazhipadu can range from ₹500 to ₹5,000 depending on the complexity. (Note: Precise current rates are best confirmed at the temple counter).

Festivals and Facilities

- * Major Festivals: Maha Shivaratri is the primary celebration, featuring special abhishekams and cultural programs. Ashtami Rohini and the Mandala Season (November–December) are also observed with high fervor.

* Facilities: The temple offers basic facilities for pilgrims including a temple tank for ritual bathing and a prasada counter.

* Accommodation: While the temple itself does not have large lodges, its proximity to Guruvayur means hundreds of hotels are available nearby.

Donations and Bank Details

Specific bank account numbers for online transfers are often managed by the Cochin Devaswom Board or the local Temple Kshetra Kshema Samiti.

> Note: It is recommended to contact the temple directly at the number provided above or visit the official Devaswom counter to obtain the verified IBAN/IFS Code and Account Number to ensure secure transactions.

Nearby Attractions

* Temples: Guruvayur Sree Krishna Temple (4 km), Mammiyoor Mahadeva Temple (3 km), and Parthasarathy Temple.

* Tourism: Punnathur Kotta (Elephant Sanctuary) is just 5 km away, housing over 50 elephants. Chavakkad Beach (6 km) is excellent for a peaceful evening.

 Budget Hotels:

* Gokulam Resorts (approx. 2.2 km).

* Hotel Devaragam (approx. 3.4 km).

* Krishna Inn (budget-friendly options nearby).

* Numerous lodges in the East Nada and West Nada areas of Guruvayur cater to all budgets.

Men must wear Mundu (Dhoti) and remove shirts; women are expected to wear Sarees or long skirts.

* Entry: Only Hindus are permitted inside the temple premises.

More info:

The Chowallur Siva Temple is a treasure trove of Kerala's spiritual and architectural heritage. Below are the expanded details you requested, including specific ritual costs and deeper architectural insights.

1. Daily Poojas and Rituals (Timings & Charges)

The temple follows a strict schedule of three main poojas daily.

* Temple Timings: 4:30 AM – 11:00 AM and 5:00 PM – 8:00 PM.

* Key Daily Offerings:

* Usha Pooja (Morning): 6:00 AM.

* Dhara (Holy Pouring): A primary offering for Lord Shiva. Small Dhara costs approx. ₹10, while a 101-Kudam Dhara (101 pots) is ₹200, and the elaborate 1001-Kudam Dhara is ₹1,000.

* Sreerudram Dhara: Performed for health and longevity (₹20).

* Ganapathy Homam: Daily ritual for removing obstacles (₹50).

* Neyyappam/Iratti Payasam: Traditional sweet offerings (approx. ₹250).

2. Special Poojas and Marriage Rituals

This temple is particularly famous for rituals related to marital harmony (Dampathy) and weddings.

* Dampathy Ikamathya Pooja: Performed for unity and peace between husband and wife (₹350).

* Uma-Maheswara Mangalya Pooja: A special ritual conducted by the Temple Tantri for those seeking a good marriage or celebrating an anniversary (₹1,200).

* Pattu and Thali Charthel: Offering a silk cloth and wedding string to Goddess Parvathi (₹300).

* Mrithunjaya Homam: For health and overcoming the fear of death (Charges vary, typically ₹500+).

* Thulabharam: Devotees can be weighed against offerings (sugar, banana, etc.). You must bring the materials or coordinate with the counter for current market rates.

3. Architectural Details

The temple is a classic example of traditional Kerala style, characterized by its use of wood, stone, and copper.

* Sreekovil (Sanctum): It is a circular (Vatta), two-tiered structure. The lower roof is tiled, while the upper roof is covered in copper plates with a golden thazhikakudam (finial) on top.

* The "Dual" Sanctum: Uniquely, the same sanctum houses both Shiva (facing West) and Parvathi (facing East).

* Mural Paintings: The outer walls of the Sreekovil are adorned with vibrant mural art depicting scenes from the Mahabharata and Puranas.

* Namaskara Mandapam: Features 16 granite pillars with intricate carvings of deities and floral motifs. A statue of Nandi (the bull) is positioned here, facing the Lord.

* Balikalpura: The 10-foot-tall Balikkallu (sacrificial stone) is massive and artistically carved, specifically designed to shield the direct view of the Shivalinga from the entrance gate.

* Wood Carvings: Look for the detailed carvings on the rafters and ceilings of the Valiyambalam (the front hall), showing figures of Devaganas and elephants.

4. Detailed Legends & Heritage

* The "Swayambhoo" Linga: The main idol is believed to be Swayambhoo (self-manifested), though tradition also credits Sage Parasurama with its formal consecration.

* The Mazhavannoor Mana Connection: The legend of the old devotee with the umbrella (as mentioned previously) specifically names the Mazhavannoor Mana (an ancestral Brahmin house) as the family the devotee belonged to.

* Snake Protection: Because Shiva here is Pannagabhushana (adorned with snakes), it is a major center for people seeking relief from "Sarpa Dosha" or fear of reptiles.

5. Facilities and Donations

* Facilities: There is a large Temple Tank (Ambalakulam) used for ritual baths. A dedicated "Uma Maheswara Mandapam" is available for devotees to conduct small private rituals or marriages.

* Official Website: The temple manages an online booking portal at www.chowalloorsivakshethram.org for various poojas.

* Donations: To get the official bank account number for the Annadanam (food distribution) or temple renovation funds, it is safest to check the "Donation" tab on their official website or call the office at +91 4885 238166.
